Greg Laabs joins Mayo Aviation, Inc. as General Manager, Maintenance

Englewood, CO – May 10, 2005 -- Mayo Aviation announced that Greg Laabs has joined the organization as General Manager, Maintenance.

Greg attended Iowa Western Community College, obtaining his A&P license in 1979. Greg started working at Duncan Aviation as an aircraft mechanic, worked as a Team Leader on Turboprop, Lear, and Citation aircraft, managed the production departments, and developed the scheduling department for the company. He moved to West Star Aviation Feb. 1997 as Director of Maintenance. In 1999 Greg assumed the role of Vice President of Operations. Greg was Project Manager for the West Star Lear 35 RVSM program in addition to developing PRASE survey top ten Maintenance and Avionics installations departments. Greg received his BA in Business at Doane College, graduating Summa Cum Laude.

In addition to his responsibilities of regulatory compliance, safety, security, and general maintenance operations, Mr. Laabs will be directing the expansion of Mayo's retail maintenance division and the repair station capabilities.

Mayo Aviation, Inc. has been providing aircraft charter, aircraft management, maintenance, parts, and emergency medical transport for 27 years. The company is located at Centennial Airport (KAPA), Englewood, CO.
